WHITNEY KEEPS PEARY IN IGNORANCE UNDER INSTRUCTIONS FROM DR. COOK

When the Big Game Hunter Returns He Will
Be an Important Witness in the North Pole Controversy—Reception for Cook.

New York, Sept. 18.—The reason that Harry Whitney, the big game hunter, withheld from Commander Peary the fact that Dr. Frederick A. Cook had preceded him by a year to the North Pole, is explained in a wireless message from Dr. Cook who is approaching port on the steamer Oscar II. When Peary returned to Etah from his quest for the pole, Whitney merely told him that Cook had gone beyond the mark reached by Peary in 1906. Dr. Cook in his wireless message states that Whitney was instructed by him not to inform Peary that he had discovered the pole and that as soon as Whitney returns from his hunting trip, which will probably include Hudson Bay, he will elucidate matters.

Dr. Cook is of the opinion that Peary's statements against him are based on the fact that Whitney failed to tell him that he had already been to the pole.

Whitney now becomes an important witness in the controversy and his arrival will be anxiously awaited. Commander Peary who may sail from Battle Harbor, Labrador, for Sydney, N. S., today, or tomorrow, has sent a wireless telegram denying the reports that he is soon to head an Antarctic expedition in the search of the South Pole. He states that he is through with polar field work, but that he will always be interested in the promotion or organization of Arctic and Antarctic exploration.

Plans are progressing rapidly for the remarkable welcome which is to be extended to Dr. Cook on his arrival here, probably early next Tuesday morning. The steamer Grand Republic has been chartered by the several clubs and committees interested in the affair and will meet the steamship Oscar II when the latter reaches quarantine. On the Grand Republic will be members of the various organizations interested, with numerous distinguished persons. A tug will take Mrs. Cook and her two children down to quarantine and wireless instructions have already been given for the captain of the Oscar II to have the companion ladder rigged on the side of the ship so that Mrs. Cook and the children may board the liner and be the first to greet the explorer.

Dr. Cook and his family will be alone while being transferred on the tug from the liner to the Grand Republic. Dr. Cook will be landed at a pier at South Brooklyn, where the municipal committee, headed by Borough President Colver, will take charge of him. There will be a parade and a reception at the Bushwick club, addresses under a triumphal arch and a dinner. Banquets and festivities will continue for several days.

TAFT DECLARES INSURGENTS HAVE ABANDONED THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

Winona, Minn., Sept. 17.—In the most important utterance of his life since his occupancy of the White House, President Taft, here tonight, in a state which is the hotbed of the Republican "insurgents" move, defended the Payne tariff bill as the best tariff measure ever passed by a Republican congress, and hence the best tariff bill the people ever have known.

The president boldly asserted that the insurgents who voted against the bill had abandoned the Republican party.

"Was it the duty of the member of congress who believed that the bill did not accomplish everything that it ought to accomplish, to vote against it?" asked the president.

"I am here to justify those who answer this question in the negative. I am not here to defend those who voted for the Payne bill, but to support them."

To this statement the crowd responded with a cheer which could be heard far down the street. It was shouted by the adherents of Representative James A. Tawney of this district, chairman of the house committee on appropriations, who has been on the defensive ever since the adjournment of congress because he did not vote with the other members of the delegation from Minnesota, both in the house and senate against the bill.

Mr. Tawney met the president at La Crosse, Wis., this afternoon and accompanied him to the city, his home town. It had been reported that the president intended defending Mr. Tawney for his party regularity, but there was no more to predict that the president would go so far as he did

COLLEGE HAZINGS

clares They Must Stop in Colorado Springs.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 18.—Indignant at the climax of the class ruck between the freshmen and sophomore classes at Colorado college, where a freshman was stripped of his clothing piece at a time in full view of hundreds of spectators yesterday, Mrs. F. G. Goddard, social leader and president of the County Humane society, declares that she will take steps to see that class ruck is abolished. Yesterday's incident was the culmination of a series of amazing hazings. Thursday night two freshmen were bound hand and foot, gagged and left lying in a barn all night. The next morning they were stripped of their clothing and carried a mile to a creek and ducked. The same night the president of the freshman class was left bound and gagged in North Cheyenne canyon all night.

THEY DESIRE HAZING.

Orono, Maine, Sept. 18.—Between 500 and 600 students of both sexes, comprising the three upper classes of the University of Maine, went on strike yesterday against the new anti-hazing regulations. Recitations were suspended pending the result of a conference between students and faculty.

When the term opened each student was handed a card to sign containing a pledge against hazing. The unpunished pledge against hazing, even the girls revolting. The faculty having decided that no student might enter the college who did not sign the pledge, a serious situation presented itself.

INJURED BY HAZING.

Toledo, O., Sept. 18.—Harris Kirk, freshman in the Coshocton high school, is near death with a fracture of the skull sustained in an effort to save his hair from being clipped by sophomore hazers. In running away from the hazers Kirk fell into an open cellarway, striking the basement floor on his head. Surgeons removed part of his skull.

Throw Bricks.

Birmingham, England, Sept. 18.—Premier Asquith last night addressed a meeting remarkable for the frenzied behavior of suffragettes, who threw toy bombs and wildflowers. Two women climbed to the roof of a building, loosened tiles and bricks with axes and pelted the police below. Several persons were hurt. The suffragettes were dislodged with fire hose.

CHICAGO EXCITED

Over the Issuing of Bench
Warrants for Tampering With Jury List

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Bench warrants were issued today by Judge Jesse A. Baldwin, of the circuit court, for John J. Holland, member and secretary of the Cook county jury commission; Nichol A. Martin, secretary to Alderman Kenna, of the First ward, and Willis J. Rayburn, real estate man. The charge against the three is that they conspired to draw names of grand jurors in a manner other than that required by law.

Coming at the height of the trial of Inspector McCann for alleged grafting, the news of the action based on alleged tampering with the jury lists caused great excitement in judicial and political circles.

The complaints on which the warrants were issued were drawn up by a special agent of the state's attorney, who has been investigating the jury drawing methods for weeks.

AS SEEN BY DUN.

New York, Sept. 17.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

Most noteworthy is the continuing expansion in iron and steel in which the position of producer and consumer has changed, the latter now displaying most of the eagerness to close contracts at prevailing rates.

Copper makes a less favorable showing than some weeks ago, and during August production exceeded the demand, with a resulting increase from the surplus stocks.

In cotton goods and yarns, the effort to lift up falling prices to a parity with raw cotton continues as the chief feature of interest.

Domestic exports from New York this year to date amount to 272,934 bales; same time last year, 128,335.

The domestic hide market is firmly held, but some foreign hides are lower, though in part this is due to a bad condition of many of the lots offered. The leather market shows improved demand. Sole is firmly maintained.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW.

New York, Sept. 17.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: A distinctly stronger undertone is displayed in this week's telegraphed trade reports.

Improvement in wholesale and jobbing demand, enlargement of industrial output and perceptible gains in collections are the central facts this week.

The movement of crops and general merchandise is enlarging and this week finds widely noted the reports that manufacturers of many lines are behind on deliveries, and that the idle car list is still decreasing. At some cities disappointment is expressed at the proportions of wholesale and jobbing demand, though at the same time it is admitted that 1908 aggregates are being heavily exceeded. Retail trade as a whole establishes branches of job trade catering to heavy weight demands report warm weather to fullest activity. Export trade in leading agricultural products is at a very low ebb and while collections are better, there is still claimed to be much room for improvement in this respect.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending September 16, were 198 against 197 last week, 26 in the like week of 1908, 179 in 1907, 171 in 1906 and 175 in 1905.

Failures in Canada for the week number 39, which compares with 25 last week and 25 in the same week of 1908.

RICH FINDS IN ALASKA

One District Yields $5,000 to Each Person in the District

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 18.—The Innoko and Iditarod stampedes have been the feature of the summer in Alaska gold mining circles but the Koyukuk district also is making an unusual showing. M. E. Beatty, who arrived from Nome yesterday, says there is much activity on Wiseman, Nolan and other creeks. He estimated the output at $500,000, which, according to population, is about $5,000 per man. Many claims on Nolan are showing big pay, especially on Pingles Bench, where large nuggets can be picked up in the grass roots, but owing to lack of water little could be done this season.

President Dislikes Handshaking and Shows His Preference for a Drive in an Auto Through Minneapolis and St. Paul

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 18.—Flags and other patriotic decorations flying in the breeze waited silent welcome to President Taft while the big crowd which surrounded the exits to the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul station saved the nation's chief a noisy greeting as he stepped from his private car here today.

Chief of Police Corbister with an ample squad of policemen kept the way clear to the waiting automobile. B. F. Nelson, for the Minneapolis committee, and Frank Kellogg, for the St. Paul committee, greeted President Taft. The room with him in the first automobile which carried the party from the station along Washington avenue south to the Minneapolis club on Second avenue and Eighth street. There President Taft was given a breakfast by fifty of the prominent men of Minneapolis.

The other members of the President's party occupied the second car. In the third were W. W. Mischler, Dr. J. J. Richardson, Senator Moses E. Clapp and W. W. Heffelfinger.

In honor of the city's guests, all of the public buildings were decorated with flags and especially elaborate decorations were hung upon the chamber of commerce building and some of the large retail stores.

Even at the early hour of the President's arrival, the streets along which it was known the automobiles would pass were lined with the throng anxious to see him pass.

A reception had been planned at the city hall from 9:30 to 10:30, after the breakfast, but on account of the expressed desire of President Taft to avoid as far as possible all handshaking receptions, this part of the program was omitted and the automobile trip about the city parks and the boulevards to Minneapolis, the State Soldiers' Home and then to Fort Snelling was extended to fill the time.

From Fort Snelling until the afternoon trip begins returning to Minneapolis, Senator Clapp was to occupy a seat in the first car and from the city limits back to the Minneapolis club, President Cyrus Northrup of the University entertained the President.

At Fort Snelling the President reviewed the troops and was tendered a reception by the officers. When the salute from the guns of the fort was sounded at noon, the presidential party boarded automobiles for the five-mile run to St. Paul via the Mississippi river boulevard and Summit avenue to the St. Paul auditorium where at 1 p. m. luncheon was served.

St. Paul, Sept. 18.—This city was brilliantly decorated with flags today in honor of President Taft's visit and the streets thronged with visitors. The committee, having in charge the decorations, procured an immense supply of flags of various sizes which were sold to citizens at cost. Along the route of the automobiles carrying the party from Fort Snelling laws were decorated with small flags spelling "Taft," and from all houses along the route and elsewhere were flying the national emblems.

The immense stage in the St. Paul auditorium, where the luncheon was served, was a bower of flags, green and autumn foliage from which thousands of electric lights glistened. An improvised banquet room was arranged in the center of the stage surrounded by a colonnade of twenty-eight white columns, thirty feet high and three feet in diameter. The spaces between the columns were screened by evergreens and autumn. The ceiling was trellised with foliage and suspended therefrom were hanging baskets of flowers lighted with shaded lights. Three thousand flowering hydrangeas were distributed about the stage.

A part of the stage not used for the luncheon guests was arranged so that 2,000 spectators might be seated there besides the throng which occupied the seats in the boxes surrounding the stage in the galleries and the main audience room of the auditorium.

Governor Johnson had planned to be present to extend an official welcome. From the capitol the party will start on the return trip to Minneapolis, via the boulevard and park system, visiting Como Park, the state fair grounds and the state university.

The plan is to bring Mr. Taft back to Minneapolis at 12:30 p. m. to give him time to rest before the banquet at the Minneapolis auditorium at 8 o'clock when he will make his principal address in the Twin Cities.

INJURED IN MOTOR CAR

Editor of Harpers Weekly
Has Shoulder Broken
in Accident

Manahawkin, N. J., Sept. 18.—A motor car, containing three men and a boy, turned turtle on the shore boulevard near here today and one of the men injured is understood to be Colonel Geo. B. Harvey, editor of Harpers Weekly. He suffered a broken shoulder blade and internal injury. He was put aboard a special train for Whiting Junction to be removed to a Jersey Central train for Deal Beach, N. J. With Colonel Harvey in the automobile were John H. Hofer, the latter's son and the chauffeur.

The party, it is understood, were motoring from Deal Beach, where Colonel Harvey has a summer home, to Atlantic City. Just after passing this place the auto met a motor cycle coming in the opposite direction. The chauffeur turned sharply to the right and in some manner lost control of the car which ran sideways along an embankment and then tumbled over. The occupants of the car were pinned under the machine and had a remarkable escape from more serious injury.

GOVERNOR JOHNSON CHEERED BY A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT TAFT

Rochester, Minn., Sept. 18.—At 7:30 o'clock this morning the night nurse at St. Mary's hospital stated that Governor Johnson was sleeping and that his condition was somewhat improved. She stated that Dr. McNevin, house surgeon, would issue a bulletin on the governor's condition at 8 o'clock.

The 7:30 a. m. bulletin says: Pulse, 105; temperature, 99.2. Getting some sleep since midnight. Working about day may have in store.

At 8:30 Dr. McNevin issued a second bulletin saying Governor Johnson was then resting easily and suffering little pain. The bulletin added:

"He is, however, in a badly exhausted condition but is holding his own. In two or three days from now the first crisis period of seventy-two hours will have been reached."

Dr. Mayo in his 10:30 bulletin said: "Pulse, 103; temperature, 33.5, an increase; respiration, normal."

"Every hour as comfortable as the last counts much in Governor Johnson's favor. The danger, however, will not be over until Tuesday."

At noon the following bulletin was issued from St. Mary's hospital: "The governor's pulse is 103; temperature, 99. He is resting easy."

In spite of his suffering, Governor Johnson did not forget the courtesies due the chief executive of the nation, now in Minnesota, from the chief executive of the state. The governor this morning dictated a telegram of welcome to President Taft to be delivered by Eli S. Warner, as follows: "Heartily and sincerely welcome to the state of Minnesota. Greatly regret my illness prevents my presence at your reception."

President Taft, in reply to Governor Johnson's telegram, said: "I am greatly distressed to hear of your serious illness. I miss your smiling and courteous personal greeting, which I have had every time I have come to the state heretofore and I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your message of welcome when you are on a bed of pain."

"I fervently hope and pray that your wonderful strength and fortitude will make your recovery speedy."

"My compliments and respect to Mrs. Johnson, whose visit in Washington I remember with much pleasure."

Dr. Wm. Mayo issued the following bulletin at 9:20: "Governor Johnson is resting easier. I think he is gaining some little strength. Pulse, 104; temperature, 99.2; respiration about normal. I look for no immediate change."

Governor Johnson was much gratified when he read the message of good cheer from President Taft.

At 10 o'clock, Frederick W. Johnson, the governor's brother, arrived. Mrs. Johnson was notified by telephone of the arrival of her brother-in-law and returned to the hospital. She also was admitted to the governor's room.
